Dear Bob:

Enclosed are the original and one copy of the 2020 Exempt Organization return, as follows...

2020 Form 990

These forms were prepared from information provided by you or your representative. The preparation of tax forms does not include the independent verification of information used. Therefore, we recommend you review the forms before signing to ensure there are no omissions or material misstatements. If you note anything which may require a change to the forms, please contact us before filing the forms.

A tax-exempt organization is required to provide copies of Form 990 if it receives such a request. A reasonable fee for providing such copies may be charged. Note that if an organization makes Form 990 "widely available" an organization is not required to provide copies at any time. An example of "widely available" is posting the Form 990 to an organization's internet address so that the general public can freely access and download it to print a copy. If someone visits an organization to inspect a Form 990 in person, the organization must still allow inspection at the office; however, if the person requests a copy of the Form 990, the organization can disclose the internet address from which he/she can print a copy of the Form 990.

This return has been prepared for electronic filing. If you wish to have it transmitted electronically to the IRS, please sign, date, and return Form 8879-EO to our office. We will then submit the electronic return to the IRS. Do not mail a paper copy of the return to the IRS. Return Form 8879-EO to us as soon as possible.

We sincerely appreciate this opportunity to serve you. Please contact us if you have any questions concerning the returns or if we may be of further assistance.

We prepared the return from the information you furnished us without verification. Upon examination of the return by taxing authorities, requests may be made for underlying data. We therefore recommend that you preserve all record which you may be called upon to produce in connection with such possible examinations.

Please review the return for completeness and accuracy.

Unless we are electronically filing your return(s), we recommend that you use certified mail with postmarked receipts for proof of timely filing.

Instructions for filing the above forms are furnished for easy reference.

Your copy should be retained for your files.

We sincerely appreciate the opportunity to serve you. Please contact us if you have any questions concerning the tax return.

Very truly yours,

Michael D. Perkins
